

Cybil Lawson – The Ghost of Christmas Pastel

Media kit

Book Synopsis:

A light-hearted amateur sleuth mystery with a cup of woven secrets, a dash of danger and a pinch of holiday spirit.

Despite her car being as broken as her checking account, her uncle coming home after thirteen years of being away, and her best friend volunteering her for the Annual Christmas Dinner at their church, Cybil Lawson is determined to have a great Christmas this year. That is, until disaster strikes when the choir director is found dead in the middle of the road with evidence of a sleigh and rogue reindeer at fault.

All joking aside, the number of suspects is longer than Santa's Nice List, but Cybil's main interest is merely to convince the new officer on the force that she has no hand in the foul play. That could prove to be rather difficult, however, as Robbyr's Cove turns into a sea of unfolding drama and danger overnight.

Things are messy enough without another body being thrown into a mix of robbery, stalking, threats, judgmental home bakers and a plethora of clues. As the case drags on, her best friend finds herself caught in the cross-hairs of the investigation and it's up to Cybil on whether she gets the recipe right or bakes them into jail.

Oh, and did I mention a missing reindeer by the name of Rudolph?

Shorter Book Synopsis:

After their church's Annual Christmas Dinner, Cybil and Yas find the choir director lying in the snow with reindeer and sleigh tracks all around. When the police begin to investigate, Cybil doesn't understand why they are focusing on her best friend until something in her past resurfaces. Now she has to check the murderer off of Santa's Nice List before Yas's parents come to town and see her behind bars. And just where did Rudolph get to?

Book Club Discussion Questions:

1. Who are you most like in the story? And who are you least like?
2. Did you deduce the killer before Cybil did?
3. Thinking back to the project Cybil crafted for work, did she really meet the requirements?
4. What was your opinion of Marjorie Stonewell?
5. Would you visit a place like Ralph's Dry Bar in real life? (come up with a drink they could serve)
6. If Norris had shown up on your doorstep, would you have taken him in?
7. Would you read the next book in this series?
